THE 25 Year Master Plan

This is the 25 year master plan that has been developed for Manhattan Bible College. Part of this plan was a realization in the fall of 1964 when the single students moved into the new residence hall for men and women.

The 25 year plan also includes a projected enrollment and other needs and goals for the future.

DEDICATION

Dr. Charles Gresham has been an inspiration to many a person. Through his testimony and teaching at camps, in the classroom, and from the pulpit, many a soul has been brought into a closer relationship with the Saviour.

Dr. Gresham is a graduate of M.B.C. He has written several articles and books in the field of Christian Education. He took an active interest and greatly helped the A.B.X, a missionary emphasis group on campus. In addition to his interest and help in these areas, he will long be remembered for his superb home cooking and the wonderful gospel songs that he sings with enthusiasm and vigor.

We wish for Dr. Gresham a successful ministry as he continues to serve as professor, minister, and friend at Emmanuel School of Religion. We are privileged to dedicate the 1966 MABICO to Dr. Charles Gresham.

The camera catches Phil Hoyle and Keith Hysom as they move boxes and baggage from cars to their new room in the dormitory.

Freshmen Pat Stewart, Bev Boxum and Ann Smith seem to be having problems unconfusing the jumbled bundles brought from home.

The library on Monday morning was a scene of mass confusion. Freshmen were presented with a line schedule, a list of probable courses for freshmen, a stack of cards and told to register. Each student is assigned to a faculty adviser who is to assist them in selecting courses and filling out the class cards properly.

Dr. Gresham, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Secrest take a breather in the now deserted library after the morning's struggle to get the freshmen properly registered.

Freshmen orientation included talks from various faculty members and the administration as well as the Student Council officers. Here, StuCo President C. Mac Hamon, addresses the freshmen class.

A reception in honor of and welcoming the freshmen was held at the Crestview Christian Church after the evening service on the first day of orientation.

The office seems to be literally overflowing as freshmen await their turn to get the Dean's signature on their enrollment cards and the final procedures for registration.

Small and Yarbrough leading a workshop.

On March 22-24, Manhattan Bible College hosted the Christian Education Emphasis Days. The Leaders of the sessions, from Standard Publishing Company, were: Ralph M. Small, Director of Field Operations and Bible School Counselor; Burris Butler, Vice-president and Executive Editor; Edwin V. Hayden, editor of the Christian Standard; John W. Wade, director of Product Development; Marjorie Reeves, editor of Junior High and Youth Bible

School material; Wilma L. Shaffer, editor of The Christian Mother; J.W. Yarbrough, editor of Bible Teacher and Leader, and Director of Curriculum Development; and Charles A. Matthews, Director of Training for Service. They directed classes concerning Christian Education. They also discussed techniques and methods, and displayed useful materials for Christian Education.

Matthews and Dean Edwards discuss the material.

Study Life

"Formal" study may be done in the library. Eddie Alexander is being helped by librarian Cheryl Hicks.

Studying? Thinking? These are both a part of learning

Students may be found studying anywhere -- on top of beds, in the lounge, or even sitting at a desk!

Devotions

Throughout the day, various group devotions are held. Above, the morning prayer circle meets. Above right, devotions "on the hill" which are held after supper in the evenings. Below, the dorms provide a time for devotions, but still---- group devotions never take the place of personal meditation, and communicating personally with God.

Women's Residence Hall

Home life in the girl's dorm is fun and very rewarding. (a) The officers, Donita Beatty, Holly Hoyle, Glennis Parsons, and Glenda Brant, conduct the administrative affairs of the dorm. (b) Here we see two girls 'administering' a little muscle power to the lounge. (c-d) Parties honoring our recently engaged girls and surprise birthday parties are a part of the fun which we enjoy. (e) And of course, a very important aspect of MBC life is the spiritual growth of each student. Both dorm devotions and the Tuesday evening prayer cells contribute much to the fellowship which we share at MBC.

Men's Residence Hall

(a) The officers of the men's dorm are: Tom Hawks Richard Achenbach, and Bob Grover. These men help administer dorm rules. (b-c) In any dorm, there are moments of relaxation and study (d) as well as a time for individual spiritual growth, a must for every Christian. (e) To make the 'hall' a home, both boys and girls have housemothers who counsel and try to keep her 'kids' in line. (f) The highlights of the day's activities are evening dorm devotions, a time for fun, fellowship, and the furtherance of spiritual dedication.

Marital Bliss

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council

A hot campaign raged in the spring of '65 for new officers to lead Stuco for the year of '66. The student-body chose for their leaders Mac Hamon as president, Steve Edwards, vice-president and Jerry Lynch as secretary-treasurer.

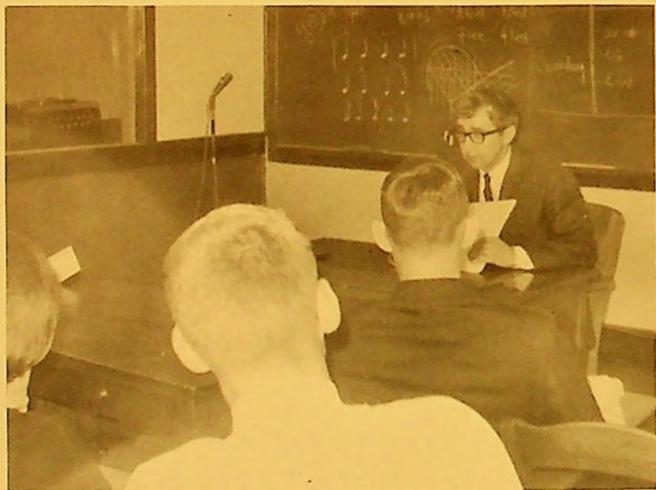

This politicin' trio had three planks in their campaign platform: firmness, fairness, and foresight. This was carried out by setting up a more effective student elections. They laid the groundwork for a Student Tribunal. Steps were taken to keep students informed on the action taken by Stuco. Stuco upheld and promoted the purpose of the M.B.C. Student-body Association and this is, "to help students to be more effective witnesses in the church, college and community.

To wind the year up, they voted to purchase a 16 mm Bell and Howell projector and screen for college use.

Stuco takes many hours of a students time but it is a solid leveling agent for student-college relations.

The Fall Advance was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The meals were served by Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. However, the main emphasis was planning the year's programs.

The Advance was closed with a prayer circle.

Alpha Beta Chi

ABX is the missionary organization on campus that sponsors the mission activities. Some activities for the year were the Fall Advance to King Solomon Camp, Mission Emphasis Week, the Campus Revivals, IOOF, and the Spring Advance.

The trip of the year was to St. Louis where ABX visited the CWBA Youth Home, the Christian Old People's Home, and the Christian Hospital of St. Louis.

On the return trip they stopped at the High Hill Missouri Church
Where the group had special music.

There is always time to talk.

The return was somewhat delayed...

To close the school year, another Advance was held at King Solomon to plan the next year's activities.

What would be an ABX retreat without a Swinging bridge and three girls merrily avoiding their work!

Sundoulai

The MBC women's organization, Sundoulai, met on the first Monday night of each month. The officers elected for the 65-66 school year were: Miss Holly Hoyle, President; Mrs. Janetta Neidens, Vice-President; Miss Margaret Eberly, Secretary; and Miss Jackie Krewson, Treasurer.

The programs for the year were centered around topics which were of interest to women. Some of the programs presented were on clothing, table setting, mental health, flower arranging, and skin and cosmetics.

The first meeting of the year, a Garden Tea was held at the home of Mrs. Wanda Morgan. This was a get-acquainted gathering with an explanation of the organization and introduction of officers.

The program "Is Your Clothing on the Line?" was presented by four Sundoulai members. Karen Packer and Glennie Baker are pictured presenting one of the talks.

Jayne Durst gave the devotions for the Christmas program. Devotions were given at each meeting by one of the members.

The February meeting was entitled "Hearts, Hearts, Hearts, Hearts" The men were invited to this meeting!

Sundoulai Song

Loyally serving the school that we honor,
Faithfully trying our duty to do,
Women of Sundoulai, serving the Master,
Upward and onward we prayerfully go.

With joy in our hearts let us walk in the Lord's way,
Serving the King, our Hearts we bring;
Pledging our lives and our love to His service,
Reconsecrate us we pray.

Mrs. C. Fitzgerald

Miss Kristina Eklund, exchange student from Finland was one of the special speakers. She is dressed in her native costume.

Pep Club

The gals that led the Pep Club as officers were: Maggie Eberly, Glennie Baker, Carolyn Truax, and Ann (Stretch) McAtee, President. They promoted loyalty, enthusiasm and begged for dues (remember gals).

Before every game, usually during the noon hour, the Pep Club along with the student-body gathered in the lounge for a rousing round of cheers and convincing talks of encouragement from the coach or a team member. Even a professor got in the act occasionally.

Loyal club members and enthusiastic ball fans flanked the team in all home games and in many games on foreign courts. Even though the club was small it responded with much gusto and enthusiasm to the team and cheer leaders.

ACTIVITIES

Students Minister

Steve Edwards, student minister to the Havens-ville (Kansas) Christian Church greets his parishioners on Sunday morning just before he proclaims the "good news" from the pulpit.

Professor Morgan as well as other M.B.C. professors give assistance and encouragement to students by speaking on special occasions where the student ministers.

Together Mac and Jacque Hamon work in the Lord's vineyard at Clifton, Kansas. Mac spends many hours in his office in study and counseling those that need guidance and encouragement.

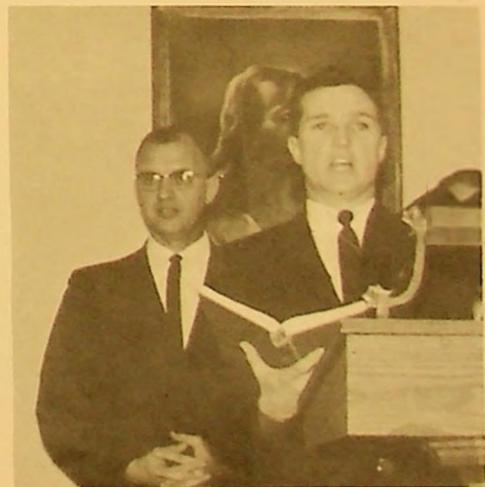

These Young people at Fort Riley, Kansas, look forward to every Lord's day when Glenda Brant leads them in Church School.

Many M.B.C. students take great delight in bringing a worship service and words of cheer to the senior citizens every Friday evening at the IOOF Home.

Students work together in evangelistic meetings through visitation, preaching and directing singing.

Gospel Teams

There were several Gospel teams at M.B.C. this year, who did a lot of traveling for the school. There was the special music, someone to present the M.B.C. Story, a song leader, and a sponsor included in each team. The trips were tiring, but also a lot of fun.

Mabico Christmas Tour

During the Christmas vacation the Mabico Singers went on tour through the Southwest. Our first stop, of course, was the filling station, then on to Enid, Oklahoma, for our first hour long performance.

When we finally arrived at Clovis, our most distant destination, everyone busily began to prepare for the evening performance. Some fixed their hair, some ate.

One washed his car and one--- Well, I guess not everyone was so busy as they looked at first glance!

But, we got to the church refreshed and on time in order to participate in the New Year's services.

We had a wonderful time at Clovis during our two day stay; but every one was happy to see us leave! Haggardly the Campbells waved goodby; we jumped into the cars on our way to Texhoma, and dreamily dropped off into slumber land.

The "ground-work" and planning of the 1966 MABICO was begun by Miss Glennis Parsons. Before the beginning of the 1965-66 school year, the staff was formed and work was ready to begin.

Meetings were held with Mr. William Washam, company advisor, of the yearbook. Also on Wednesday evenings, the staff met to do even more planning of each department.

In order to gain more ideas for a yearbook and to talk with other editors and advisors, Miss Parsons and Mrs. Chris Hamon (advisor), attended a seminar on college publications. This all day meeting was held at Washburn University in Topeka, Kansas.

As the year rolled on, a number of people were involved with the yearbook, those who worked on advertising, finances, writing copy, photography, lay-out work, and art work. We would like to thank all of those listed on the following page for the time and effort and help which was given. We hope this is a yearbook which will help you to remember the wonderful year which is past.

Our most sincere thanks to Mrs. Chris Hamon for her time and the help which she gave to all of us concerned. And now---on with the book.

Another important aspect of life at MBC is student participation in intercollegiate basketball. This event enables the participants to visualize every individual team member as a man who is looking forward to a specific field in the service of God. It also helps to promote Christian sportsmanship and school spirit, while providing an outlet for the release of energy and tension.

Watch the time! Watch the time!

The success of the basketball season this year stemmed greatly from the coaching of Lon Floyd. Lon is a junior at Kansas State University with a major in Physical Education, and is part of a new program developed by the administration which enables the school's entire physical education department to benefit from specialized instruction. The instantaneous manner in which Lon found his place as a part of the school family is a living exhibition of the growing relationship between MBC and KSU.

Guest Lecturer, Dr. Joseph E. Grimes, is a missionary, linguist, and anthropologist who has been working among the Huichol Indians of Mexico since 1952. The translation of the New Testament into Huichol by Dr. and Mrs. Grimes was completed in May 1965 and is now being printed. They have also prepared primer materials to teach the Huichols to read their own language, a booklet on elementary health and sanitation, a dictionary, a hymnal, and a summary of the Old Testament for background study. For several years he has been doing research and writing programs for using computers in the analysis of languages and as an aid to Bible translation. To date, he has helped process material in 83 languages. He is a man of accomplishment in the life of the Church and in the world of academics such as he should challenge all of us to greater service in the Lord's Kingdom.

Missions Emphasis

Missions Emphasis Week, sponsored by Alpha Beta Chi, was held this year from March 6-13, with five missionaries participating. The missionaries were: Clifford Schaub, Congo; George Beckman, Japan; Marshall Bivens, Cookson Hills Christian School; Harry Scates, Brazil; and Doug Priest, Ethiopia. Each evening these missionaries, along with gospel teams, presented a missionary emphasis program to forty-one different churches. ## Soliloquy to Seniors

by Dr. Van Buren

This evening down the misty lane
Of memory we stroll again,
And to our Seniors try to say
With wit and whimsy what we may.

Dear Sharon takes it on the chin
Whene'er she plays her violin,
She knew she'd have a balled up life
When Moe took her to be his wife.
But, just the same, she seems more peppy
Than when she used to be a Deppe.

Richard is quiet, seldom shook,
He'll never be a bubbling Brook,
But he'll refresh and vivify
All who look to him, by and by.

And bright, paternal, Eddie El
Will go to Africa to tell
The gospel to the natives on a
Mission quest-along with Donna.

There is Mac who snared a Jackie
As cute as Kennedy's, by cracky!
Mac early learned his horn to blow
And sense and suavity to show.

There's Earl, now from the army free
Where he forsook the Artillery
A Baptist big gun now to be.

We'd never mind our seeing double,
It never would seem any trouble,
It, to our bifurcated sight
Two Lynches showed to left and right.
Reports, tests, graphs-however made
Those twins came up with the same grade
No baffled students, in a pinch,
Would yell, "Go hang", but just "Go Lynch!"

O sweet, silent, dulcet Darlene
No finer girl was ever seen.
You work your puppets like a pro,
And what I really want to know
Is why boys in this generation
Don't change your single situation.

No pests can live with B.B.T.
So Glenn's no in sect, you can see.
Love's melodies he likes to start
And for his Barbara plays by heart.
So, though she's left Billings behind
She really doesn't seem to mind.

Joleen, rare, radiant and red,
With scintillant ways and scarlet head,
Some said in single pris'n you'd be
But you fooled them-came out Scott-free!

Seniors, Adieu, with misty eyes
We tender you our fond goodbyes.

Juniors

Having enjoyed their third year at M.B.C., the Juniors are looking forward to just one more. They will soon be known as the "upper classmen" of M.B.C. The highlight of the Junior year was honoring the Seniors at the annual Spring Banquet.

Sophomores

Janetta Neidens, Secretary
Junction City, Kansas

The sophomores began the year with great anticipation. They were no longer "freshmen who didn't know anything", but they were in the lower branch of upper classmen "who didn't know anything!" During the year they have had a wonderful time trying to move upward in the world even though they might have fallen down a few times.

For fun and excitement, they had a going away party for their sponsor, Dr. Charles Gresham. For his own going away party, Dr. Gresham provided the delicious dinner of tacos!

Just before school was dismissed, they sponsored an all-school "hootenanny". The singing, eating, and talking was enjoyed by everyone present.

With the close of school they look forward to an even greater year next year as it will be one more step up the ladder towards working for the Kingdom of our Lord.

M.B.C. was fortunate to have a number of special students this year. A few were Kansas State students taking from 3 to 6 hours. Others were wives of student ministers and some audited classes. Even though they were classified as special students because of hours, they were also special in their contribution to the college as Christian gentlemen and ladies.

First day butterflies are evident in the various expressions of the freshmen girls' faces. While waiting for transportation to the "Welcoming Banquet" at the Wareham Hotel, new names and faces are learned and old acquaintances renewed in the new atmosphere of college.

The freshmen boys seem to be making themselves right at home with a good laugh at the freshmen girls?

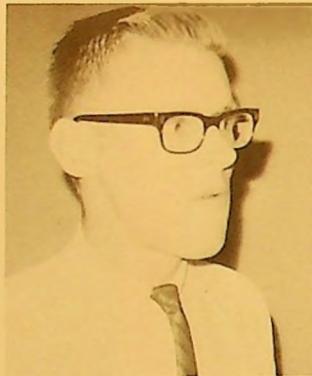

In every girl's dreams are boys, boys, boys. But would you believe seven!

Here's Love

Hey Bill, How do you start this thing?

Shall we all stand and whistle the doxology?
